

Onsdagen den 10 juni

- 12.00 Registration and lunch
- 13.00 Welcome and opening. Lars Carlsson, Vice chancellor, University of Kristianstad
-
- Introduction.* Urban Emanuelsson Professor, University of Kristianstad and Swedish Biodiversity Centre
- Key note:
Climate Change, Disasters, and the Resilience of New Orleans: Adaptation of Ecosystem Services in a Dynamic Urban and Coastal Landscape. Douglas Meffert, Professor, Tulane/Xavier Center for Bioenvironmental Research, New Orleans
- 14.45 Coffee
-
- 15.00 Application of Ecosystem Services in Skåne. Per-Magnus Åhrén, Head of department for nature preservation, Skåne County Administrative Board
- 15.30 Ecosystem services in fresh water areas in Sweden. Lena Tranvik, PhD, Swedish Species Information Centre
- 16.00 Ecosystem services in planning for a sustainable society. Thomas Elmqvist, Professor, University of Stockholm
John van Breida, Professor, University of Stellenbosch, South Africa
-
- 18.00 Departure Wetland Boatsightseeing – On board: Sightseeing and information about Kristianstads Vattenrike Biosphere reserve.
Sven-Erik Magnusson, Coordinator, Kristianstads Vattenrike Biosphere reserve
- How Kristianstad is being protected against flooding.*
Michael Dahlman, Planning Coordinator, Municipality of Kristianstad
- Kristianstad – Mitigating Climate Change.* Lennart Erfors, Project Coordinator, Municipality of Kristianstad
- Impact of ground water in Kristianstad.* Johanna Larsson, Project Coordinator, Municipality of Kristianstad
- 19.30 Dinner in Lillö castle ruin. Host: Erna Arhag, Mayor, Municipality of Kristianstad

Torsdagen den 11 juni

- 8.30 Mainstreaming ecosystem services – quantification, valuation and local policy. Steve Polasky, Professor, The Beijer Institute of Ecological Economics
- Importance of ecosystem services in the Swedish forest.*
Johnny de Jong, PhD, Swedish Biodiversity Centre
- 9.20 Agri-Environmental Schemes as a tool for supporting ecosystem services in Sweden. Martin Sjödahl, Head of Environmental Division, Swedish Board of Agriculture
- 9.50 Key note: ●
From the Forest to the Faucet: A Case Study of the New York City Water Supply System. Paul Barten, Associate Professor of Forest Resources University of Massachusetts – Department of Natural Resources Conservation, Amherst
- 10.30 Coffee and drinks with a selection of local food specialities
- 11.00 Session: Current research on ecosystem services and associated management in Kristianstads Vattenrike Biosphere Reserve.
Swedish Environmental Protection Agency
- 11.30 Management of ecosystems on the ground: the role of bridging organizations and local stewards. Lisen Schulz, PhD, Stockholm Resilience Center
- 12.00 Ecosystem services provided by the flooded meadows of Kristianstads Vattenrike. Marmar Nekoro and Jennie Svedén, Biologists, Stockholm Resilience Center
- Refreshments
-
- 12.45 Identifying scales of management for ecosystem services: brownification and Kristianstad Vattenrike. Magnus Tuvendal, MSc, PhD candidate, Stockholm Resilience Center
- 13.15 Multidisciplinary bachelor programme studying the patterns and processes of social-ecological systems.
Joachim Regnell, PhD, University of Kristianstad
Henrik Svensson, PhD, University of Kristianstad
- 14.30 Closing lunch